

THE WINGS OF CHANGE

*As I dance surrounded by the wings of change,
I see the movement of the stars,
Everything is in perpetual motion,
Changing and changeless as one.*

*As the wings turn to follow
The air current movement or new trends,
So we turn to follow
What is the very best for us.*

*The wings gently touch our shoulders
To remind us of our Creative Power
Nothing is stable
For we are pulled to move forward
To a new path, a new us, a new decision.*

*These wings belong to our Angels,
Telling us:
"It is time to change,
It is time to grow".*

*Envision a new Future,
Envision a new Planet,
Envision Oneness,
So everyone may come
And dance with the Wings of Change.*

And So It Is

PROSPERITY

Potential Recurrence Of a Secret Path Energy Remembered through Integrity, Thoughts and Yearning

The path of Energy, the path of Awareness and the path of Bliss all have in common: being in the flow.

The path of Energy is the acknowledgment that everything is interactive as light and darkness, cause and effect. One cannot exist without the other. The secret relies in being in one state in order to appreciate the other state and find the balance, the void, and the point of creation between. One state can be our state of Happiness and the opposite our Shadows. Our shadows are here to remind us of our Supreme Beingness, a reminder to look for what is good in our life instead of what doesn't work.

The path of Energy is pure Awareness, the Awareness that we create our own experiences through thoughts and deliberate creation. The Awareness that we are part of a greater Whole, part of an Energy bigger than ourselves, part of the Divine Flow called God, Universe, Life force, etc. This Energy is an immense reserve of opportunities, of matter waiting for our thoughts to create that sparkle of Light and ignites our desires.

The path of Awareness is tapping in the Cosmic soup of all possibilities. It is being aware of our own vibrations, words, thoughts pattern and actions. How we choose consciously or not each one of them. How we are aware of their positive influence with everything we come in contact to, be in this physical world or beyond.

It is being aware of what we hope for, our desire of us being in the flow with that secret path we walk on everyday, that hidden path that takes us deeper and deeper into the world of imagination, because more we imagine, more we acquire.

And then the path of Bliss, that Beauty that Lies In the Seat of the Soul. Know how beautiful you are; know your purpose that will open the doorway to a field of pure potentiality. Know that this state of Bliss is the state of Now. Every thought created now, create your future.

So come with me, sing the song of the Uni-verse, to create the WEALTH as Worries are Eliminated through the Affluence of Love and Timeless Happiness.

Come with me; dance the dance of Peace, Laugh, Joy and Bliss. Expect the best because the Universe will match only with the vibrations of your desires.

And finally come with me; create Magic by putting a special attention on the word spoken. Blow out the negative one, let it pass like a cold wind and welcome the warm breeze of intention, love, compassion and service. Create the Prosperity and Affluence that you desire. Pick up everyday a Power word as Freedom. Feel how free you are during this day, how much freedom you do you give and receive with non-judgment. Just be free without attachment to the goal, enjoy the journey instead. Just Be and that Higher Beingness will anchor itself deeply in you. It is how you will develop a new program or a new habit of feeling. Create your own dreams, see them on a giant screen, feel them, smell them, and hear them, as they become you.

Use your Power of Knowledge and Intention. This is the Sacred path, the path of Unity, of Infinity, of non-Limitation. Watch for the opposites as with each one of them an opportunity opens that let the flow of Abundance manifest in your life. Love them, there are here to help you to stay focus and balance.

So focus on the Intention of Wholeness, it is what you will bring into your life! See the fullness of every moment as God is everywhere and you have only to consciously embrace him through your attention. This attention will in return create the Magic that you are yearning for in your life.

Embrace all your potentials, so they will bring the Abundance in every part of your Life and create the Wholeness of who you are.

You are an unlimited Human Be-ing so dare to dream. Abundance is knocking at your door, open it and create the marvels of your Beingness. And finally, be an example of Abundance and show the path of Energy, Awareness and Bliss to everyone you encompass, let's create a World of Abundance and Prosperity.

SURRENDER

Sudden Unified Reaction to a Real ENDDing of a Evolution in Reverse

I surrender my ego, the veil of illusions that stops me from seeing Love in action,

I surrender with my mind, letting go of my inner battle wanting to control,

I surrender with my heart dancing in the Unified Field of All That Is,

I surrender with my body, releasing the tension and blockages I stored when I am resisting or not in the flow,

I surrender with my whole Being spinning at higher rate to let go and let God, so I can be shown the higher path to Wisdom, Love and Oneness,

I surrender for guidance and I channel the Energy of Love,

I surrender to my Higher Self that knows my reactions, that knows what is the best for me, who is the witnessing Energy of my pain and struggles,

I surrender to Love, so compassion is my way of Being, so I can give without attachment, and experience the Love for every living beings, creatures and nature,

I surrender to All that is, so I can expand and experience the Universal Love and be reprogrammed to be of services,

I surrender to God, the Supreme Energy, the Generator of Dimensions, knowing that all is well and in Divine Order,

And most of all, I surrender in the Divine Light, please God guide me, show me the way.
